- People routinely camp out under the Public Library in Jackson
- Report by the Historical Society that a homeless person was living under the front porch of the County Museum (Spring 2019)
- In a separate incident the Historical Society said a Homeless person lite a fire and burned a hole in a picnic table at the County Museum (June 2019)
- There has been an individual camped out by Pine Grove Market since April or May of 2019 under the tree in the vacant lot next door
- In July 2019 I met an individual in Pine Grove Park who was homeless while visiting the Farmers Market.
