

Amador County Public Health Authorization To Release Healthcare Information

COVID-19 records: Prior to submitting this request, please complete the DIGITAL COVID-19 VACCINE RECORD request form using the telephone number and email address you provided when you received your COVID-19 vaccine. Should you have any trouble receiving your record, proceed with completing this form.

Adults requesting records for adult children, family, spouses, or significant others: Anyone over the age of 18 is responsible for requesting his or her own record. Please have them submit their own request to avoid any delays in processing time, as requests are processed in the order they are received.

Minors requesting immunization records: Please have your parent or guardian request your records. Any requests submitted by a minor will be denied unless you are an emancipated youth and have court documents to show this.
