

I'll love you no matter what...

...but your cigarettes are hurting me.

Remember, when you smoke...so does your pet.

Pets can develop respiratory infections, lung inflammation & asthma when breathing in secondhand smoke.

Dogs have a higher risk of certain kinds of cancer when exposed to secondhand smoke.

Secondhand smoke contains more than 4,000 substances, more than 50 of which are known to cause cancer in humans or animals.

